

Heritage University
Semester II – Med Surg
Skills taught in Semester II Clinical
IV medications, (Limited exposure. We need practice)
IV Insertion
Respiratory care and suctioning.
NG care and Insertion/NG Tube Feeding)
Suctioning NT/ET
Enterostomal Care
Basic EKG monitoring
Tracheostomy Care
End of Life Care
Head to toe Assessment
Pre-op and post op care
Skills taught in Semester I Clinical Medical Asepsis, Vital signs
Body Mechanics, Range of Motion
Bed Bath, Bed Making
Lifting, Transferring, Ambulating
Oral hygiene, Relaxation
Charting, Feeding and Eating
Oral, Subcutaneous, Intramuscular Medications
Irrigation and/or instillation:
Application of topical medications
Use of Inhalant medications
Restraints, O2 therapy
Enemas, catheter care
Retention catheter placement
CBG testing and insulin administration
Wound Care, binders-bandaging
Isolation techniques, Specimen collection
Students: For Memorial nursing staff to better understand skills taught in your nursing program; please review/give a copy of these skills to your primary nurse each clinical day.
Charting:
Heritage University Student Nurse Notes Reviewed
By: _____ RN
D
A
R
J. Smith, SN/Heritage University/Instructor J. Mendoza, RN.